1 Information about Central Business School

1.1 CIPS study centre

Central Business School (CBS) is fully approved by CIPS to deliver all their qualifications and are audited by them annually.

Their most recent CIPS audit stated:

'This is a centre with an excellent brand and reputation. Client induction and support is all encompassing and excellent. Support for student is extensive and always available and this is supported in the very positive comments of clients in their evaluation forms. Preparation for examinations is wide-ranging and rigorous. Excellent resources with links to useful and relevant documents and websites.'

1.2 Website and brochure

You can find out about how CBS teach the CIPS Level 4 Diploma on the CBS website – where you can also download the brochure.

www.centraleduc.com

You might also be interested in the (short!) report on the impact of CIPS Diploma courses – which you can find by clicking on the 'course impact' tab on the black banner on the home page of our website. It is based on interviews conducted by managers from some of the companies (Tesco, Whitbread and Mercedes) who are sponsoring their employees to study with CBS.

1.3 Teaching schedule and methodology

Because the course is modular clients can begin at any time. The course is delivered through weekly teaching sessions based on slides that supplement the course book and a comprehensive pass kit. The slides provide lots of additional supporting material and the kit has likely questions and answers that are a shortcut to exam success.

There are usually 8 sessions per module. Recorded sessions are available for you to view as you wish. The offer includes unlimited feedback on practice exam papers and a revision session for each module.

Central Business School also provide a guaranteed pass whereby if clients are unfortunate enough to be unsuccessful in an exam (the pass rates were actually 96 % in the last Diploma exams I hasten to add!) they will continue to tutor them without charge.

You can attend teaching sessions which run weekly in Russell Square or online via Zoom. Other groups study two half days a month.

1.4 Address for the exams

The exams for each module will be held at
Broadway House
Tothill Street
Westminster
SW1H 9NQ

1.5 Course lead

The course lead will be Johanna Mateus MCIPS.

After completing her bachelors degree in economics, Johannah Mateus worked in a variety of procurement roles for around 10 years, including managing the management trainee programme at Wilmott Dixon and key accountability for the strategic procurement function across all three of their businesses. She was an exceptional student when studying for her MCIPs with Central Business School and achieved outstanding results in her exams. She has worked initially as a part time and then as a full-time tutor for Central Business School since 2015.

1.6 Entry requirements

Entry requirement for the CIPS Level 4 Diploma are 2 'A' Levels or 2 years business experience. Additional entry requirements for the Apprenticeship are Maths and English GCSE at A-C. (or their equivalents). Candidates without this can sit a literacy and/or numeracy test prior to beginning the course.

1.7 Taster sessions

Weekly taster sessions run from 6.30 – 7.30 at the Russell Square Study Centre or via Zoom where prospective students can take part in a class, view materials and meet with other people on the course and with the tutor. The session takes about an hour.

2. Apprenticeship in Procurement and Supply Chain

2.1 Apprenticeship delivery and partner

The Procurement and Supply Chain Apprenticeship includes the CIPS Level 4 Diploma - and CBS deliver this element of the programme on behalf of Central Business School's Ofsted 'outstanding' graded Apprenticeship Partner Organisation - FarePort Training. The CIPS Level 4 Diploma has the same value if studied as part of the Apprenticeship as it does if studied as a standalone qualification.

<https://www.fareport.co.uk/>

Clients studying for the Diploma as part of the Apprenticeship can recoup all tuition costs through the Apprenticeship Levy – which effectively means there is no charge.

The dates and times of study can be seen under the Level 4 section.
